

MAHARASHTRA RESIDENTIAL LEAVE & LICENSE AGREEMENT

Synthetic high-risk test document for LeaseLens AI | Pune, Maharashtra

IMPORTANT: This is a fictional test agreement created for a hackathon. It is not an official Government of Maharashtra form, not legal advice, and the deliberately unusual provisions are included to test contradiction, risk, ambiguity, and missing-information detection.

Document Type	Residential Leave & License Agreement
Jurisdiction	Pune, Maharashtra, India
Licensor	Aarav Estates LLP
Licensee	Rohan Deshmukh
Premises	Flat 804, Cedar Heights, Baner, Pune, Maharashtra 411045
Term	1 October 2026 to 30 September 2027

This agreement follows the familiar Maharashtra Leave & License structure and intentionally contains testable issues.

1. Period

The Licensor grants the Licensee a revocable leave and license to occupy the Licensed Premises for the period from 1 October 2026 to 30 September 2027.

2. Compensation and Security Deposit

The Licensee shall pay monthly compensation of Rs.25,000 within the first five days of each month. The Licensee shall also pay an interest-free refundable security deposit of Rs.75,000.

3. Rent Escalation

Upon renewal or extension beyond the first year, monthly compensation shall increase automatically by 8% without further notice.

4. Renewal Amendment

Notwithstanding Clause 3, upon any renewal after 30 September 2027, monthly compensation shall automatically become Rs.30,000 per month, regardless of the prior monthly compensation or the percentage stated elsewhere in this Agreement.

5. Payment Delay

If monthly compensation is not received by 11:59 PM on the fifth day of the month, the Licensee shall pay a late charge of Rs.2,500 plus Rs.250 for each additional day of delay.

6. Maintenance and Repairs

The Licensor shall remain responsible for structural repairs. However, the Licensee shall pay the first Rs.15,000 of every repair event, including plumbing, electrical, appliance, air-conditioning, and water-leakage repairs, whether caused by ordinary wear and tear or otherwise.

7. Use and Alteration

The premises shall be used only for residential purposes. The Licensee shall not make any alteration or addition without prior written consent of the Licensor.

8. Subletting and Occupancy

Subletting, assignment and licensing are prohibited. However, the Licensee may permit any family member or paying guest to occupy a room in the premises for up to 30 days without prior notice to the Licensor.

9. Inspection and Access

The Licenser may enter the premises on reasonable notice and at reasonable intervals for inspection. The Licenser may also enter at any time without notice whenever the Licenser considers an inspection necessary.

10. Cancellation

The Licenser may revoke this Agreement immediately for any breach, non-payment, complaint from a neighbour, or suspected misuse. The Licensee shall have the right to vacate by giving 30 days written notice to the Licenser.

11. Security Deposit on Exit

The security deposit of Rs.75,000 is refundable under Clause 2. However, upon termination, the Licenser may retain the entire deposit as an exit administration charge, in addition to any other deduction for damage, unpaid charges, or delay.

12. Possession After Expiry

Immediately upon expiry or termination, the Licensee shall vacate the premises. If the Licensee remains in occupation, the Licenser may charge double the daily compensation and may remove the Licensee and belongings from the premises without recourse to a court of law.

13. Dispute Resolution

Any dispute shall be resolved by binding arbitration. The arbitrator shall be selected solely by the Licenser, and the Licensee waives any objection to the appointment process.

14. Notice

Notices shall be delivered by registered post, email, or WhatsApp. A message sent to the Licensee shall be deemed received immediately, regardless of whether the Licensee has opened or read the message.

LeaseLens AI - Expected Test Signals

This page is included for judges and QA. The application should surface these as findings rather than treating them as established legal violations.

Signal Type	What LeaseLens Should Surface
Potential contradiction	Clause 2 says the Rs.75,000 security deposit is refundable; Clause 11 allows the entire deposit to be retained as an exit administration charge.
Potential contradiction	Clause 3 sets renewal escalation at 8%; Clause 4 sets the renewed rent at a fixed Rs.30,000 regardless of the earlier percentage formula.
Potential contradiction / ambiguity	Clause 8 prohibits subletting and assignment but separately permits a paying guest for up to 30 days without prior notice.
Potentially severe financial burden	Clause 5 imposes Rs.2,500 immediately plus Rs.250 per additional day for delayed payment.
Broad maintenance obligation	Clause 6 makes the Licensee pay the first Rs.15,000 of every repair event, including major or wear-and-tear related events.
Conflicting access standards	Clause 9 requires reasonable notice but also permits entry at any time without notice when the Licensor considers an inspection necessary.
One-sided termination	Clause 10 gives the Licensor immediate revocation for broad triggers while the Licensee receives a 30-day notice right.
Potentially harsh possession clause	Clause 12 combines double daily compensation with a purported self-help removal mechanism.
One-sided dispute resolution	Clause 13 lets the Licensor alone select the arbitrator.
Missing / underspecified details	The agreement does not define the meaning of “reasonable notice”, “repair event”, “complaint”, or the exact process/timeline for deposit accounting.

Suggested judge questions

- “Are there contradictory deposit clauses?”
- “What is the rent increase on renewal?”
- “Does the landlord have unrestricted access?”
- “What happens if the tenant is late paying rent?”
- “Which clauses create unusual financial obligations?”
- “What important information is still missing or vague?”

Expected product behavior: LeaseLens should quote the exact section/page evidence, explain the conflict or concern in plain language, distinguish fact from interpretation, and avoid automatically declaring a clause illegal without separate legal-source verification.
